

UrbanPromiseTrenton & East Trenton Collaborative

STREETLEADER INTERN PROGRAM

Who We Are:

UrbanPromise Trenton is a non-profit in Trenton which provides free AfterSchool and SummerCamp Programs to children in grades 1-8 and hires teens to act as mentors and leaders in the StreetLeader Program.

The East Trenton Collaborative, operated by New Jersey Community Capital, is a community organizing and development initiative in the East Trenton neighborhood of Trenton's North Ward. By facilitating conversations and action on community priorities, we engage partners, support businesses, and build the power of residents to make East Trenton a great place to live, work, and play.

UrbanPromiseTrenton & East Trenton Collaborative

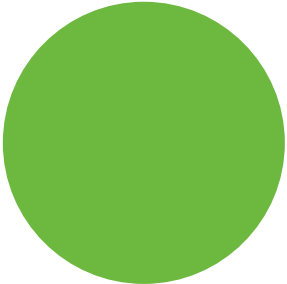

The StreetLeader Program employs teens to work at UPT's childcare programs and provides all teens with academic coaching. The StreetLeader Intern Program gives teens an opportunity to connect with East Trenton businesses as part of their work at UPT.

HOW IT WORKS

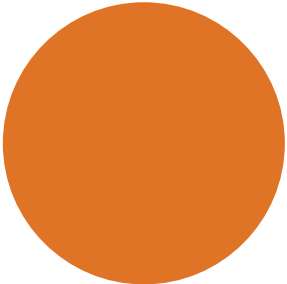

The teens in the StreetLeader Program are hired and paid by UPT. As part of the program, all teens must participate in academic support which is essential to their success. Traditionally StreetLeaders work as leaders at our program site. Because our ETC site is so small, these teens can be placed in community businesses for up to two hours each day Monday-Thursday. Teens are trained by UPT staff who supervise their placements

COMMUNITY BUSINESS PARTICIPATION

If you own a small business in East Trenton, our StreetLeader Intern Program may be for you. Working closely with UPT staff, you can meet and then, engage a motivated teen to work in your business while UPT pays their stipend. The teens in the program receive employment training and teens can do most required tasks. We will work to ensure that teens and business are matched appropriately!

HOW TO GET STARTED
